Christ's United Lutheran Church Mission Statement

We the members of Christ's United Lutheran Church, Ashland, desiring to be blessed together with Word and Sacrament and to become more perfectly the Body of Christ in our world, do hereby commit ourselves to a mission which includes a creative re-examination of our worship life; a quality educational program for all ages; intentional witnessing; a serving spirit; and an integrated support system which will under gird our program and the maintenance of our facilities as it encourages improved stewardship.

Grace and Peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

PASTOR BRIAN'S
MESSAGE

I'm a child of the 1980s. And I'm male. This means that when I was a small child, I watched "He-Man and the Masters of the Universe." I had the toys. I could still hum the cartoon theme. I specifically remember that if you woke up early enough, you could watch TWO episodes of the cartoon, one at 6 and one at 6:30, which was early enough that my mom and grandmother could still watch "Good Morning America" at 7:00.

So just this week, a trailer was released, and yes, they are indeed making a live action movie from this cartoon franchise that is more than 40 years old (there was one made in the 80s with Dolph Lundgren, Ivan Drago from Rocky IV, as He-Man, but it didn't look quite like the cartoon every boy in that time knew). Maybe this is because there are no new ideas at all when it comes to movies that are coming out. Seriously- take a look at all the remakes and sequels and such that have been released or will be in the future.

I watched the trailer. And I was in awe. It was like my childhood had come back to life! It brought back memories of my mom helping me to find rare figures (I remember her calling around to every K-Mart in a 50 mile radius of Frackville) and seeing the commercials. Then I grew up. Kind of.

I am excited to introduce my son to this same thing that captivated my mind when I was a child. We do that, don't we? We hope that our kids like the same things that we do. Then we have a little moment of disappointment when they turn out to be different than us.

This is all to say that soon we will enter the season of Lent. Before we do, we will witness the Transfiguration of our Lord, where we see Jesus on the mountaintop with Moses and Elijah, leaving no doubt in mind of the disciples there with him that Jesus is exactly who he says he is - he is Lord of Lords, he is God's Son. Then the voice of God shows up and says - LISTEN TO HIM!

Christian symbol

CORNERSTONE — The cornerstone is a symbol for Christ. It has Old Testament roots in Isaiah's prophecy (Isaiah 28:16). In the New Testament, Christ is called the cornerstone in Ephesians 2:20. The IHC and XP on the stone's sides are abbreviations for "Jesus" and "Christ" in Greek.

*The CULC Messenger
God's Work, Our Actions*

What does it mean to listen to him? Well, this Lenten season in our midweek sermon we will have a series called “Conversations with Jesus,” where we will deliberate over that very question. Life is often not what we want it to be. For me, the 1980s are long gone. Perhaps there are some good things about that. Perhaps some not. I recently found an old receipt from when my mom went to Hess’s department store to buy some outfits. She essentially outfitted me for the entire fall for around $100! Try doing that today.

So we are reminded, in the midst of a world that likes to sell us on nostalgia and comfort, that Jesus asks us and directs us to go out into a world that looks very different than what makes us comfortable. He calls his disciples to stay in a land that doesn’t understand Jesus’ message.

When I was a kid and watched that cartoon, there was always a little segment that reminded the kids of the moral message the episode was trying to convey. Sometimes it was about dealing with sadness, once there was even one warning kids about drug use. One such message taught that the theme of the episode was that we are all given a special ability, and the name of that ability was “love”.

We are all sent to love this world that God gives us and its people. Let us go and radically love!

See you along the way,

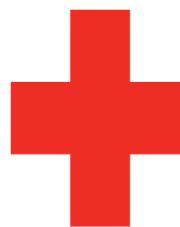

Pastor Brian Beissel

Evangelical Lutheran Worship Pew Edition

As the changing times have come, it has come time for us to transition to the newest hymnal. Released for the first time in 2007, Evangelical Lutheran Worship includes selections from the green LBW and blue With One Voice, in addition to all new settings. Included are the settings we at Christ's United already use, in addition to ten other settings.

As time has progressed, the Sundays and Seasons programs we use in the office and for worship planning use more and more the ELW and not the green LBW. With this change, the time has come for us to make a switch. There will still be times we use hymns and settings from the green book.

We also are now worshipping using a projector, which means that we do not necessarily need one hymnal for each worship participant. Many of you use the books less and less and the screen more. Still, we need to have sufficient copies to meet copyright law standards.

You have an opportunity to sponsor the “new” (almost 20 years old) hymnal! Copies are $26.50 each, and you can make your hymnal in honor or in memory of a loved one.

There is a copy of the Hymnal on the table in the Narthex for anyone wishing to see it.

Immediately after worship, on February 15 we will hold our Annual Congregational Meeting.

Please plan to attend and support our ministries here at Christ's United.

Annual Meeting

February Council Contact of the month is John Towey.

The Council Contact of the Month is the “on call” member of council, the person to contact if you have any concerns (other than pastoral concerns), or need access to the building. If you need to contact John, he can be reached at 570-205-2682.

PRAYER CHAIN

Each day members of Christ’s United bow their heads and lift their hearts in prayer for the ministries of this congregation and people in need.

A copy of the Prayer List is available at worship services each Sunday. You also have an email sent to you each week with a list of those in need of your prayers. A phone chain notifies you of immediate needs. If there is an immediate need of prayer, please call the church office. In the event the office is closed, Gail Marquardt (570-554-1075 or 570-933-1737) should be called to begin the prayer chain. Please call the church office for more information or to become a Prayer Chain Participant.

Praying Through the Directory

Each month we will be listing three of our church faith families. We ask that you take the time and uplift them in prayer for their needs and spiritual journey.

This month we pray for:

The Anthony Family - Stewart & Faith

The Cunningham Family - David, Nancy, David, Daniel & Dennis

The Smith Family - Frank & Karen

God’s love is never meant to stop with us; it’s meant to flow through us. When we love others, we reflect his very heart. As 1 John 4:12 (NIV) reminds us, “If we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.”

This is the true mark of a Christian — love that reaches beyond comfort zones, opinions and differences. Jesus said in John 13:35 (NIV), “By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

The world is watching, not to see how loudly we profess our faith but how deeply we practice it. Every act of compassion, every gentle word and every moment of grace reveals something divine — God’s love at work in us. The more we give that love away, the more it grows within us, mirroring the heart of Christ, who gave Himself for all.

So ask yourself: Does the world recognize you as his disciple by the way you love?

The New Testament uses several Greek words to describe love. Which of the following best represents the selfless, sacrificial love that God shows to humanity?

- A) Eros
- B) Phileo
- C) Agape
- D) Storge

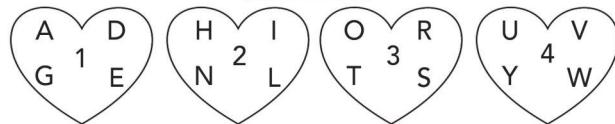

Answer: C (See John 3:16 and 1 Corinthians 13)

Remember....

That you are dust, and to dust you shall return. Such are the words of blessing offered on Ash Wednesday, as we remember our humanity and God's immortal love, shown to us in Jesus Christ. It is a time of somberness in recognition of the love so strong that death could not break its grasp on us. Service will be held at 7:00 pm on February 18th.

Sunday February 8

TACKLE HUNGER

In 1990, Souper Bowl of Caring began with a simple prayer from a single youth group:

"Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us be mindful of those without a bowl of soup to eat."

Since then, over $220 million has been generated for local charities across the country through Souper Bowl of Caring. It has become a powerful movement that transforms the time around the Big Game into the nation's largest celebration of giving and caring for those in need.

Through this mission, people learn they can make a positive difference in the world as they collect food, raise money and serve at hunger-relief charities and show caring and compassion in local communities across the country.

Share in God's love for our neighbors in need and give generously on Souper Bowl Sunday. All of the donations collected will go directly to our Tackle Hunger Charity of Choice:

Christ's Cupboard Food Pantry

To learn more, visit: TackleHunger.org

Please place all food or monetary donations on the table in the Narthex. Monetary donations will be used to purchase more food.

All items will go to "Christ's Cupboard".
